

Leicestershire & Rutland Ornithological Society

May Outing - Middleton Lakes & Cannock Chase

Saturday 20th May 2017

Nestled in the beautiful Tame valley, just south of Tamworth on the Staffordshire/Warwickshire border, Middleton Lakes is the latest RSPB nature reserve to open to the public. Middleton Lakes is set to become the most important site for breeding waders in the Midlands. The lakes, reedbeds, meadows and woodlands making it one of the best birdwatching sites in the area. Meeting at the reserve car park at 0930. Later in the evening we will head over to Cannock Chase in pursuit of Nightjars

Directions:

Middleton Lakes is off the A4091, just six miles from the M6 and four miles from the M42, north-east of Birmingham. Take the A446, the A4091 and then Bodymoor Heath Road.

To book a place please contact Andrew Cliff no later than Monday 15th May 2017
Phone: 01530 814593 E-Mail - Andrew@checklandkindleysides.com

Next Outing - Rutland Water & Eyebrook Reservoir
Saturday 17th June 2017